News from Winston-Salem #37

A VISIT TO SALEM TOWNE: On Tuesday evening, March 25th, with the lightest of snows falling, members of the Winston-Salem Assembly visited with Mrs. Leta Duffin at the Health Care Center at Salem Towne. Originally from Missouri, Mrs. Duffin moved to the Winston-Salem area a number of years ago to be near her grandchildren, including our own Morgan Frank. Our visit was capped off by a solo of "In the Garden" sung by Mrs. Judy Sigmon.

News from the DeMolay

ROCKIN' FOR RESEARCH: On Saturday, April 12, members of the Raleigh, Winston-Salem, and Fayetteville Chapters of NC DeMolay met in Burlington to assist the NC Order of the Amaranth with their second annual Rockin' For Research fundraising event for the Amaranth Diabetes Foundation. Three venues in a one block radius featured more than 20 rock and country acts including The Ends, Jive Mother Mary, Dixie Revival, the Ramblin' Fever Band, Chartreuse Microbus, and our favorite, Old Man Noize. In addition to helping carry band equipment, the DeMolay manned one of the many booths set up at the Historic Depot Amphitheater to help raise money to go directly to diabetes research. Next year's Rockin' For Research is scheduled for Friday, April 10, and Saturday, April 11, in Burlington so mark your calendars.
