SECOND OFFICIAL VISIT OF OUR GRAND WORTHY ADVISOR: The members of NC IORG met at the Greensboro Masonic Temple Saturday evening, Aug 16th, for the Second Official Visit of our Grand Worthy Advisor, Miss Schifra Drew, of Onslow Assembly #42. The event was hosted by Greensboro Assembly #23 with co-hosting Assemblies of Fayetteville #22, Wilmington #29, Wayne #46, Spring Lake #62, and Hillsborough #77. Dinner for the 120 guests present consisted of a pasta buffet with more desserts than you could count. A reception followed the meeting, and the night concluded with a magnificent fireworks show provided by the Greensboro Grasshoppers baseball team, whose game concluded two blocks away at the same time that we got ready to depart for the evening.

SUPREME ASSEMBLY The last week of July, more than 1,300 Rainbow Girls and Advisors from around the globe traveled to Baltimore, Md., to attend the 45th biennial Supreme Session of "Rainbow Lights the Way". Thirty-one of those in attendance represented the Grand Jurisdiction of North Carolina. The Supreme Session began for NC on Friday night as we hosted an ice cream social for the Supreme Family. With the room decorated with drift wood brought in from the NC coast and a working lighthouse, the NC Rainbow Girls charmed the Supreme Family with their genteel manner, beautiful Victorian swimsuits of every color, and some very delicious dairy treats. On Monday our Supreme Ritual Drill Team competed in various competitions, ultimately taking 2nd place in the Opening and Closing Competition. The team consisted of Schifra Drew, Haley Deese, Emily Jordan, Lauren Slater, and Brook Westerman of Onslow; Tori Shue and Sterling Yco of Raleigh; Gracie Finley and Jordan Cole of Hillsborough; Hope Bursell of Albemarle; and Emily Williard of Winston-Salem. The Supreme Session concluded on Wednesday with the Installation of Officers.

NC SUPREME INSPECTOR ELECTED SUPREME FAITH: The Supreme Inspector in NC, Mrs. Kay F Letterman, was elected Supreme Faith by the members of the House of Gold. That means that Mrs. Kay will be presiding over the 50th Biennial Supreme Session in 2024 here in NC!

CONCLAVE: Camp Millstone in Ellerbe, NC, was the setting for this year's annual meeting of North Carolina DeMolay. On Thursday, August 7th, young men from all over North Carolina made the journey to the heart of the Sandhills Game Lands to renew their fellowship and conduct the business of North Carolina DeMolay. Set amongst some of the most beautifully restored longleaf pine stands in the southeastern U.S., the annual gathering began with a pizza party, and then the State Association was opened and candidates for the various State Offices were introduced. Elections were held the next morning (See below for results) followed by a general session on leadership. Friday's other activities included a kickball match, 3v3 soccer tournament, and an exercise on the lake called "The Fox, the Chicken and a Bag of Corn". After dinner, several candidates received the Initiatory degree and the DeMolay degree. Rainbow Girls from several Assemblies joined us for Saturday's activities, which included classes on the Art of Manliness and a banquet and awards ceremony. We were honored by the attendance of the Region III Cabinet Member & State Master Councilor of Tennessee, Bro. David Hasting, and the State Master Councilor of South Carolina, Bro. Taylor Foulds. After dinner a dance was held in the Recreation Hall, and DAD Chaz Silber, our resident DJ, had everyone on the dance floor. A devotional was held Sunday morning, and then the 91st annual conclave closed.

ELECTION OF STATE OFFICERS: On Friday, August 8th, members of NC DeMolay elected Bro. Andrew Williard of Winston-Salem to serve a second term as State Master Councilor. Bro. Luis Roman, Jr. of Raleigh was re-elected Deputy State Master Councilor. Bro. Eliot Boyd of Charlotte was elected Western District Master Councilor (of which Winston-Salem is a part), and Bro. Aidan Meadows of Jacksonville was elected Eastern District Master Councilor.

TWO NEW DEPUTY MEMBERS OF THE ISC: On Saturday, August 9th, DAD Alan Williard of Winston-Salem and DAD Paul Jones of Raleigh were elevated to the rank and dignity of Deputy Members of the International Supreme Council.
