GRAND REPRESENTATIVES RETREAT & INITIATION: The weekend of August 1st the Grand Representatives from across the state gathered in Albemarle for a fellowship and service retreat. The event began with a beautifully executed initiation of our very own Jessica Koon (Welcome to the Sisterhood, Jessica!). From there the GRs launched straight into a wonderful service project making Hope Totes from gently used T-shirts that they had brought with them. These totes were filled with all sorts of special treats and delivered that Sunday to the Ronald McDonald House in Chapel Hill. Following a Walking Taco dinner, the GRs played theater-style improv games to boost their confidence, strengthen their vocal projection, and just generally have a great time getting to know one another better. Judging by the quality and excitement of those in attendance, NC IORG has a very bright future!

WINSTON-SALEM DASH VS. SALEM RED SOX: Sunday afternoon, August 9th, decked out in our white Winston-Salem Dash baseball hats (compliments of Womble Carlyle), the TMY witnessed first hand the Winston-Salem Dash clobber the Salem Red Sox, 10-3. It was a beautiful day at BB&T Ballpark, and everyone enjoyed the solid win.

SERVING DINNER FOR THE GRAND MASTER'S VISIT TO WINSTON LODGE #167: At the request of the Winston Lodge, the TMY spent Monday evening, August 10th, at the lodge in Clemmons helping to serve dinner to Grand Master Douglas Caudle, Deputy Grand Master Bryant Webster, DDGM Gary Handy, the members of Winston Lodge #167, and gentlemen from across the 26th Masonic district.
