News from the DeMolay

OFFICIAL VISIT: The Grand Assembly of NC gathered in Graham on Saturday, August 31, for the official visit of our Grand Worthy Advisor, Claudia Grainger. The visit began with a catered dinner, followed by our meeting. After the meeting, the Winston-Salem Assembly put on a skit titled "The Calling of the Assemblies" in honor of our GWA's Scottish heritage. Cake and other goodies closed the night.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS: Jennifer Jaramillo was installed as the Worthy Advisor of Winston-Salem #37 on Saturday evening, Sept 7th, by Sterling Yco, WA of Raleigh #4. Jennifer is a Senior at Parkland High School.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION: With our summer vacations over, the Grand Assembly of NC got down to the business of learning on Saturday, Sept 28, when we gathered at Wayne Assembly for the School of Instruction. As part of this year's curriculum, Emily Williard gave a presentation reflecting all that she had learned at the Supreme Seminar.

BURNING UP THE ROADS: On Saturday, Aug 24, 2013, we traveled to Raleigh to witness the Installation of Officers. Deputy State Master Councilor Luis Roman was installed as Master Councilor of the Chapter. Then, on Sunday, Sept 8, we visited the Greensboro Chapter for their stated meeting. On Saturday, Sept 21, we headed South to the Charlotte Chapter for a Hot Dog Social. We've loved traveling and getting to know our brothers in these Chapters and look forward to visiting the other Chapters.

KERNERSVILLE ROADSIDE CLEANUP: Early Saturday morning, Sept 14, the Winston-Salem Chapter (with a token IORG member/sister) helped the masons of Kernersville Lodge with their roadside clean-up. It was a chilly morning but well worth it to help beautify and serve our community as well as spend time with one another.

GRAND LODGE OF NORTH CAROLINA AF&AM: State Master Councilor Andrew Williard attended the Grand Master's Banquet on Thursday, Sept 26, and then delivered an address to the members on Friday, Sept 27, during the mason's annual stated communication in Winston-Salem. NC DeMolay set up an information table in the vendor's area and distributed information about the organization on Fri and Sat. The DeMolay had lunch together Sat after Grand Lodge closed and then took a tour of Wake Forest University as part of their Education Day observance.
