4TH ANNUAL MASONIC HOMECOMING FESTIVAL: Early Saturday morning, October 11th, the Triad Masonic Youth pulled out of Winston-Salem and headed for the Masonic Home for Children in Oxford, NC. Arriving at 7:30 am, the group helped shuttle parade participants to the starting line on East Spring Street and then distributed water and freshly made biscuits to those who were about to march in the one-mile parade through town to the Children's Home. Oasis, Amran, and Sudan Shriners entertained the crowd with a wide variety of units. There were mini-trucks, Nascarts, smoke-spouting water-throwing John Deere Gators. There were clowns, Beach Bums, and Hillbillies. A miniature fire brigade and a convoy of mini-monster trucks also rolled through town. Our DeMolay State Master Councilor, Andrew Williard, road with the rag tops, and the Triad Masonic Youth road with the Raleigh Masonic Youth on James B Green Lodge's float. Pit-masters from across the state cooked through the night in order to compete in the BBQ contest, and the fruit of their labor provided the gathered with an "all-you-can-sample" feast that was very delicious. Country music hit-maker Jason Michael Carroll took the main stage during the noon hour and thrilled the audience with his deep, rich voice, making for a phenomenal lunch. It was a picture-perfect day. The sun was shining, and though cool in the morning, the afternoon was delightful. We enjoyed serving and spending the day with our extended Masonic family and in particular our Rainbow Sisters and DeMolay brothers from across the state. We greatly look forward to serving at next year's homecoming festival. Be sure to mark your calendars for October 10, 2015, and bring your family and your friends.

BANK OF AMERICA 500: Saturday evening, October 11th, our Worthy Advisor, Morgan Frank, assisted the Winston-Salem Shrine Club by volunteering to work at the Bank of America 500, a NASCAR Sprint Cup Series race hosted annually at Charlotte Motor Speedway in Concord. Money earned by the Shrine Club by working at the race helps to support the Shriners Hospital for Children in Greenville.
