News from the DeMolay

GRAND CROSS OF COLOR MYSTIC BANQUET: Saturday morning, November 9th, forty-seven people gathered at Old Town Lodge to observe our annual service of breaking bread together and renewing our vows of service to the Order. It was a wonderful morning catching up with old friends, making new ones, and partaking of a delicious breakfast prepared by the Sigmons and the Vargases.

OPEN HOUSE: The Triad Masonic Youth held an Open House on Thursday evening, November 14th. While the girls didn't exactly hit our target, the guys did a great job of getting the word out. As a result they have six new prospective members that they plan to initiate in the next few weeks. If you missed the Open House and are interested in joining or learning more about either group, please contact us at the email addresses listed below.

PANCAKE SUPPER THANK YOU: A huge thank you to everyone who came out and supported the Triad Masonic Youth by eating pancakes on Friday, Nov 22nd. Your support of our youth groups is deeply appreciated.

WHITESTONE: The NC Masonic Youth will once again be visiting the residents of WhiteStone on Sunday, Nov 24th, for a service in the chapel followed by a light reception. A full report will be in next month's newsletter. In the meantime, check out our Facebook pages for pictures.

CONGRATULATIONS to Tania Chavez for being chosen as Student of the Month by her team teachers at Clemmons Middle School. We are very proud of you, Tania!!!

CONGRATULATIONS to PMC Ian Wonderly on earning his Eagle Scout rank. Ian is a member of Boy Scout Troop 911. We are so proud and honored to call Ian one of our own!!!

CAMPING: After a quick stop in Greensboro on Saturday morning, November 9th, to talk to the men of Wilkerson College about DeMolay, we set off to the Sauratown Mountain Range to enjoy a weekend in the great outdoors. We hiked the trails of Hanging Rock State Park and definitely discovered the sheer cliffs and peaks of bare rock. We raced through the quiet forests and explored the cascading waterfalls. We hiked up the hundreds of stairs to the observation tower and experienced the breathtaking 360-degree views of the piedmont plateau that stretched for miles. And most importantly of all, we strengthened our bond of brotherhood with memories that will last a lifetime.

NC DEMOLAY SPORTS WEEKEND: Saturday, Nov. 16th, DeMolay from across North Carolina met at the Masonic Home for Children at Oxford for a weekend filled with sports, fellowship and interaction with the residents of MHCO. Saturday afternoon was spent playing flag football, 3-on-3 basketball and dodge ball. After dinner, we gathered in the game room to play pool, ping pong, air hockey and foosball. We watched the movie Iron Man 3 followed it up with a Zombie Manhunt and a game of Uno. Sunday morning, after breakfast, we attended church together.
