News from Winston-Salem #37

News from the DeMolay

in the neighboring county. The evening ended with everyone relaxing and warming themselves around the fire pit. DAD Gene Solomon stopped by the party about that time bringing with him mountains of pizza and running a DeMolay Attitude Check, this writer's all-time favorite DeMolay drill. As the DeMolay nestled in their tents on the lawn, and the Rainbow in their sleeping bags on the floor of the Octagon House, plans could be heard being exchanged for next year's event.

SECOND ANNUAL MASONIC YOUTH SPOOKTAKULAR: The weekend of October 25-26, Masonic Youth from around the state gathered in Swansboro at the Jones Masonic Campus, commonly referred to as The Octagon House, for the second annual Halloween party extraordinaire. Hosted once again by Onslow Assembly #42, the event was more elaborate than last year. The campus was decorated to the hilt with every cute and creepy moving decoration ever made, and the spread of food would have made Paula Dean herself jealous. This year's haunted trail was a walk-through, and once everyone became complacent with the level of terror, one of the Masons from the area joined the trail with his weed eater. The first time he cranked it up, the screams could be heard JOINT INITIATION WITH LENOIR ASSEMBLY LT: Friday evening, Nov 14th, Winston-Salem Assembly held a joint initiation with the new Lenoir Assembly.

We welcomed 2 new sisters, Christina and Salem Kate, and Lenoir welcomed 1 new sister, Ally. Both Assemblies have candidates who were unable to attend so we look forward to another joint initiation in the very near future.

N.C. MASONIC YOUTH GATHER AT WHITESTONE: Sunday afternoon, Nov 23rd, the North Carolina Masonic Youth made their annual pilgrimage to WhiteStone. As has become our tradition, the event began with a DeMolay-led service in the Chapel, complete with special music. After the service, NCIORG hosted a reception for the residents so that old friendships could be renewed.

Above: Nov 15th visit to Asheville to initiate six new brothers and begin re-opening the Chapter.

Left: Nov 22nd visit to Wilmington for an Open House. Eight prospective brothers attended.
