News from the DeMolay

TRI-STATE MASONIC YOUTH PEPPERMINT BALL: North Carolina DeMolay hosted a masquerade ball on Saturday evening, December 13th, at the Greensboro Masonic Temple in downtown Greensboro. In addition to members of North Carolina IORG, also in attendance were members of South Carolina DeMolay and IORG and members of Virginia IORG and Jobs Daughters. All together about 140 members of the tri-state masonic youth groups danced the night away to the sounds spun by DJ Chaz Silber. Formal attire and pulsing lights added to ambience as those present enjoyed a night of fellowship and frivolity. A lock-in followed the dance with the DeMolay sleeping in the Scottish Rite Auditorium and the IORG members watching Princess Bride and then sleeping in the Blue Lodge two floors below. Parents and chaperones danced and then congregated in the dining hall to renew old friendships and make new ones. Plans have begun for 2015.

WINSTON-SALEM HOLIDAY PARADE: On Saturday evening, December 6th, the Triad Masonic Youth joined the members of Piedmont Pioneer Lodge #685 as they marched in the Winston-Salem Holiday Parade. Following the parade, the TMY attended the annual tree lighting ceremony in Corpening Plaza and then went for ice cream.

TANGLEWOOD FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS: Thursday evening, December 11th, the TMY made their annual pilgrimage to Tanglewood Park for a cozy ride through the rolling countryside to view the winter wonderland of giant, twinkling snowflakes and fanciful, lighted holiday scenes.

SHRINE BOWL OF THE CAROLINAS: The North Carolina Masonic Youth will travel to Spartanburg, SC on Friday, December 19th, for an evening of fellowship with the members of the South Carolina Masonic Youth. The following morning the youth will march in the parade and then proceed to Gibbs Stadium on the campus of Wofford College to sell programs at the nation's oldest high school football all-star game running. Proceeds from the event help to support the Shriners Hospitals for Children.
